

THE DAILY PRESS

SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1865.

The Press is the Official Paper of the United States for the State of Kentucky and the Southern portion of Indiana and Ohio.

A WORD TO ADVERTISERS.

Our circulation is rapidly increasing, which renders the Press one of the best advertising mediums in the State. We hope our friends will send in their advertisements.

OUR ATTENTS.

Wm. L. Wedding, Atty. at Law, Rockport Ind.
J. Calvert, Trustee, Rockport Ind.
Samuel Feland, Postmaster, Hopkinsville, Ky.
J. H. Duncan, Bagdad, Ky.
John C. Moore, New York, New York
H. G. Vesal, Franklin, Ky.
T. S. Brown, Bowling Green, Ky.
T. C. Thompson, Frankfort, Ky.
Cone, Fannell & Co., No. 49, Cherry Street, Nashville,
Tennessee
F. E. Knobell, New York, New York
F. C. & Co., New York, New York
Dr. J. P. Polk, Perryville, Ky.

Postmasters of Divisions, Brigades, or Regiments can have the daily Press furnished them in Camp at an early hour in any quantity by leaving their orders at our office the day previous. A liberal discount made to dealers.

DIFFICULTY.—Yesterday about eleven o'clock a difficulty took place at the U.S. Hotel that was quite serious. It occurred between a Lieutenant and a hack-driver by the name of Testers. It appears that Testers had been hauling the Lieutenant the night previous, for which he had received no pay. Yesterday morning Testers went to the room of the Lieutenant and demanded his pay. When some words followed, when Testers took a revolver belonging to the Lieutenant, and told him that if he followed him down stairs he would blow his brains out. The Lieutenant was in bed, but immediately got up and drew his revolver. He followed Testers down stairs into the bar, walked up to him, pinned a cocked revolver to his head, and pulled the trigger. Fortunately the pistol missed fire. At this Testers drew his revolver, and for a minute there was quite an excitement. The pistols were taken from the parties, and they were sent to the Provost Marshal, who released the Lieutenant and sent Testers to the barracks.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.—The Rev. Mr. Crockett, recently deceased at Cincinnati, Gazebo, James Crockett, well known, both in this country and Europe, in a tamer of wild beasts, died Thursday afternoon in Cincinnati, about four o'clock in the evening, in a惊异的 moment when he was exhibiting at the time to an immense audience, that was waiting impatiently to witness his exploits with the animals under his management.

Mr. C. enjoyed his usual health during the day, and was then driven through the streets in company with his lions, which set, taken in connection with the excess of the sun, seems to give the best and most rational clue to the solution of the mystery of his death.

The deceased was a native of England, unmarried, and perhaps forty-five years of age. The achievement which first gave him notice as a tamer of animals occurred at Asley's Amphitheater, London, and consisted of going into a herd of wild beasts that had been trained to obey him entirely, and his notorious and wonderful power quelling their rage and thirst for blood—which had been whetted by devouring a man who fell in their way—and leading them back subdued to their dens.

At the time of his death, Mr. Crockett was engaged in getting away, when about to appear before the audience. We believe he was on his way from the dressing room for this purpose, when he staggered, fell, and almost immediately expired. An inquiry was held into the cause of death, but it has not yet been made known. His body, sent to the establishment to which he was attached will be irreparable, while the crowds who have every where witnessed his extraordinary feats, will regret the sudden taking off of one who had given them so much pleasure.

SAFETY.—The river Mount City, Ill., is full of great boats, a great many of them disengaged for the auctioneer. The fleet which has protected the lower rivers is now mostly collected at that point and their crews mustered out of service. On our map, the Benton, the westernmost of the Mississippi, which renders her comparatively worthless. The fire was under the boilers, and nearly burned a hole in the bottom. The iron is burned nearly through for the length of six feet.

Charles Hawkins and John Combs were brought over from Jeffersonville on the 1st and placed in the stocks on the square. They last night, but were released on the Fourth, that he has since died. Both the offenders belong to the 4th Kentucky Mounted Infantry.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.—To-night closes the engagement of Miss Kipp Blanchard at the theater. She has played a very successful engagement, and leaves us with the best wishes of all. Monday night Miss Ada Gray commences an engagement, and we may anticipate fine entertainments.

Mrs. Maggie Humphries was drunk and disorderly on the streets yesterday. The patrol found her, and she was sent to Capt. Swope's new prison for females.

James Wagner, colored, who hails from Cairo, Ill., was arrested by the sheriff yesterday for insulting white ladies at Portland. He was placed in bars.

THE MILITARY COMMISSION.—was engaged yesterday in trying Jim Davis and Payne Stone, guerrillas. The evidence in the case of Stone was concluded and the case submitted.

The Christian Commission having failed to make the first payment on its purchase of Ford's Theater, Washington, its proprietor announces its immediate opening.

Col. J. O. Nixon, of New Orleans, is preparing to review the Crescent, one of the best conducted papers in that city before the rebellion.

Memphis is making an effort to repair the railroad connecting that city with Gratiot, Mississippi, and the railroads of the interior of that state.

INQUEST NO. 373.—Held July 6, 1865, at the river, two miles above Louisville, on the body of a negro man, name not known, who had been found floating in the water. Came to his death on the 2d instant, at the above place on the night of the 3d of July. J. C. Gill, Coroner.

INQUEST NO. 374.—Held July 6, 1865, on Second street, between Main and Water, on the body of John Wilson, late of Iowa, and of company H, 10th Iowa Veteran Volunteer Infantry. Wilson had been to his death at the above place, at about 7½ o'clock P. M., July 6, 1865, of apoplexy.

Iowa State Register and other Iowa papers please copy. J. C. Gill, Coroner.

The Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel informs the people of Georgia that they can not expect to be relieved from military control till the factions and captious spirit which now exists, has passed away, and they exhibit a hearty desire to co-operate with the Federal Government in an effort to give the State a civil government in harmony with the supreme authority.

THAYER AND NOYES' CIRCUS.—The magnificent tent of Thayer & Noyes was again crowded last night. Of all the shows that are now traveling in this country this is undoubtedly the best. Besides the menagerie to be seen, the animals to be gazed upon, there present a ring performance that cannot be surpassed. The acts of horsemanship are modest but daring; the acrobatic feats wonderful. The clown, Mr. James Reynolds, is a thorough gentleman, and adds to the taste and enjoyment admirably. He has the heart of the statesmen that have been hawked through the country for the last century. His savings all sparkle with wit, and his actions are graceful and pleasing. The juvenile act of Master Eddie on the back-backed ponies is very fine. We have heard him, and think that will give James Robinson. There will be a performance this morning at 9 o'clock, for the benefit of families and children. At 2 o'clock there will be a second performance, and at night the last performance will be given. Messrs. Thayer and Noyes will exhibit through the State, and we commend them to our citizens as clever, deserving gentlemen.

STRIPES AND STARS.

COUNCIL PROCESSION.—There was a meeting of both Boards of the General Council last evening. There was a large number of aspirants for the offices of policeman. There were forty-nine candidates, and but fourteen to be elected. The names of those elected are: J. C. V. Bailey, W. C. Clegg, J. B. Watson, W. H. R. P. Oates, M. G. Holmes, Robert Gilchrist, J. M. Brooks, H. W. Kirby, D. H. Hall, A. Yates, R. Watson, and D. Yates.

An invitation from the U. S. Mall Company, inviting the Councilmen and their families to take a pleasure trip on their boat.

TEETERS.—Yesterday about eleven o'clock a difficulty took place at the U.S. Hotel that was quite serious. It occurred between a Lieutenant and a hack-driver by the name of Testers. It appears that Testers had been hauling the Lieutenant the night previous, for which he had received no pay. Yesterday morning Testers went to the room of the Lieutenant and demanded his pay. When some words followed, when Testers took a revolver belonging to the Lieutenant, and told him that if he followed him down stairs he would blow his brains out. The Lieutenant was in bed, but immediately got up and drew his revolver. He followed Testers down stairs into the bar, walked up to him, pinned a cocked revolver to his head, and pulled the trigger. Fortunately the pistol missed fire. At this Testers drew his revolver, and for a minute there was quite an excitement. The pistols were taken from the parties, and they were sent to the Provost Marshal, who released the Lieutenant and sent Testers to the barracks.

DIFFICULTY.—Yesterday about eleven o'clock a difficulty took place at the U.S. Hotel that was quite serious. It occurred between a Lieutenant and a hack-driver by the name of Testers. It appears that Testers had been hauling the Lieutenant the night previous, for which he had received no pay. Yesterday morning Testers went to the room of the Lieutenant and demanded his pay. When some words followed, when Testers took a revolver belonging to the Lieutenant, and told him that if he followed him down stairs he would blow his brains out. The Lieutenant was in bed, but immediately got up and drew his revolver. He followed Testers down stairs into the bar, walked up to him, pinned a cocked revolver to his head, and pulled the trigger. Fortunately the pistol missed fire. At this Testers drew his revolver, and for a minute there was quite an excitement. The pistols were taken from the parties, and they were sent to the Provost Marshal, who released the Lieutenant and sent Testers to the barracks.

POPE COURT.—Friday, July 7.—Jennie Brown, silas Jumping Jennie, drunk and disorderly, fined $5 and held in $100 for two months.

Geo. W. Leonard was bailed out of the Frederick Riley and H. S. Simpson, far dealing, cheating a soldier out of $450; bail in $200 to answer.

John Manley, John Gathery and James Cameror, stealing $50 from John Lisberg, Charge of field and staff, and the parties concerned as suspected felons; Manley held in $300 for six months, and the other in $200 for three months.

Philip Neeli, stealing $50 from Mrs. Morrison, held in $100 for two months.

Kate Feeny, stealing a ring from W. O'Connell; discharged.

THE RUSSIAN PLAGUE.—We understand extensive preparations have been in progress for some time past for the reception, in a fitting manner, of this distinguished visitor from Russia.

In regard to the coming, we should judge, from general appearances, One has only to pass along our prominent streets, and inhale the evidences arising from the gutters, to convince him in the Russian, Asiatic, or African, a fearful visitor may be expected before the approach of the "six weeks in August."

THE COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.—The Commercial Convention will be met in Detroit, on the 10th inst. It will be open to all the maritime and inland trade held in this country. Forty-two Boards of Trade, representing nearly all the large cities in the North and West, will be present, and like associations in Canada will send delegates. It is said that the Treasury Department will send a prominent official to represent the executive, and the Chamber of Commerce will be represented by a deputation of its members.

The Commercial Convention is to be met in Detroit, on the 10th inst. It will be open to all the maritime and inland trade held in this country. Forty-two Boards of Trade, representing nearly all the large cities in the North and West, will be present, and like associations in Canada will send delegates. It is said that the Treasury Department will send a prominent official to represent the executive, and the Chamber of Commerce will be represented by a deputation of its members.

THE SCHUTZEN CORPS.—A great Sharpshooter's Festival is to take place at Breckenridge, July 15th, and will continue seven days. In response to invitations, a large number of members of the corps in the United States, left New York last week for the festival, and a large number of the United States flag and a beautiful silk corps banner. At Breckenridge a commodious brick building, embracing a hall of $5,000 square feet has been erected for the occasion.

SAD CASUALTY.—We learn that on Sunday last evening, during the prevalence of storm in the vicinity of Buddell's Mills, Bourbon county, Kentucky, Mrs. Charles Shawhan, who was riding through a strip of wood, was instantly killed by the falling of a limb from tree. Her little child was also severely injured.

J. G. TIFT.—A man named J. G. Tift, of Ohio, a dealer in certified Government accounts, was found in a ravine on the outskirts of Charleston, W. Va., last Saturday morning. He had been thoroughly搜查, and nothing but $100 in money, some $15,000 in bonds, and his gold watch and diamond pin had not been taken. One of the jury who held the inquest on the body of the deceased was right. [Cheers.]

THE SOUTHERN PLANTERS' PLAN.—The Southern Planters' Plan.

The St. Louis Democrat says:

The South has been visited with Southern planters for the last few years giving information of the course which some of these cotton growers have determined to pursue in relation to the cultivation of their lands. It is simply to let the lands out to any one, black or white, who may wish to plant cotton, and to let the landowner receive a certain percentage of the produce, or, if the article raised is cotton, [Cheers.]

In the first place, the arrogant, the overbearing and great Republic of America would have had to do with the slaves, but there are many ways of getting rid of them.

They are dying by hundreds of thousands. [Whoo!] and I say now, that the best way of emancipating the slaves was to do it gradually, and by that means to inform the horrible guilt of killing many millions of your fellow men. [Laughter.] That is all I need say about America.

"How about recognizing the South?"

I am sure that the South had been recognized, but that was not done, and that is all I need say about it.

"What is the South?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"And when this is over, what will you do?"

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the Union." [Laughter.]

"Then bears the stripes and stars." [Laughter.]

And when this is over,

"We'll rescue our home, and treat our brothers as brothers." [Laughter.]

"And we'll pluck the hand of friendship, and knock the door of peace?"

"It is a state of the

BY TELEGRAPH.

Gen. Grant's Return to Washington

The President's Health Slowly Returning.

Ex-Gov. Vance, of N. C., Released.

Insubordination Amongst Soldiers

A Serious Difficulty Threatened.

Visit to the Condemned Conspirators.

Sentences Formally Read to Them.

Appearance and Conduct of the Prisoners.

Preparations for the Execution.

Prisoners of War in our Hands.

Mutinous threats Among Soldiers.

Troops in Gen. Terry's Department

Late Interesting News from Texas.

Gen. Granger's Direction of Affairs

Arrival of Weltzel's Command.

Fatal Calamity at Wheeling, Va.

Celebration of the Fourth at New Orleans.

New York, July 6.—The Tribune's Galveston letter, dated the 20th says:

Galveston is now occupied by captured troops, commanding a provost guard for the enforcement of law and order.

General Gordon Granger left this morning with sufficient force to occupy the city and protect the citizens in the vicinity.

The transports loaded with part of Weltzel's corps arrived several days ago, but were unable to cross. A large fleet is now at anchor off the bar, composed of many vessels, transports, and coast barges. The Port Royal, New London, Preston, and Columbus are anchored in the harbor. The former and latter are now deserted; the shell, shot, and powder scattered about with wanton recklessness.

Gen. Granger declares that they are not worth occupying at present. For Bankhead and Fort Moultrie, he has no principal military force, but there do not deserve to be called forts, being merely piles of sand and railroad iron, with but few guns in casemates and on the ramparts.

A letter says that true loyalty is scarce in Galveston. Even now, while soldiers patrol the streets, and naval fleets are anchored at the bar, these narrow minded and impious-fisted people cling to the idea of State independence.

They want to fly the Lone Star flag once more, and subdivide their country into four States, and become a recognized power in the world.

New York, July 6.—The Tribune's New Orleans correspondent says:

Major General Sheridan after visiting Galveston, proceeded to Brazos Santiago, and from there to Brownsville, remaining but a short time in each place. He is hourly expected to return to his headquarters in this city, which are established at the Strong Mansion.

General Welles arrived at Brazos Santiago a few days since, and temporarily established his headquarters there. It is thought he will proceed to Brownsville in a few weeks, to superintend the embarkation of his command, which has been effected.

The Tribune's Washington special says: The following dispatch was received in this city to-day:

NEW YORK, July 4.—General Banks delivered an ornate Union celebration speech to-day, an immense and enthusiastic audience, and it was one of the most eloquent addresses ever made in this State. He asserted the justice, right and necessity of conferring the elective franchise on colored people of the South.

Hon. John Covode has been investigating, and left for Washington yesterday.

The celebration wound up to-night with a magnificent freedmen's torchlight procession.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—A most distressing and fatal accident occurred to Capt. John List, resulting in the death of Captain John List, an old and prominent citizen of this city, and wounding Major McPhail.

A squad of provost guards were in pursuit of an escaped prisoner, when an order was given to fire, which was obeyed by one of the last taking effect in the high of Capt. List, severing an artery, and passing through the foot of Maj. McPhail, producing a painful flesh wound. Capt. List died in about an hour after receiving the wound, and his death caused deep feeling throughout the city.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The Herald's Richmond correspondent says: Gen. Terry, commanding in Virginia, received orders from Washington on the 3d inst., to muster out all two ps in his department whose services are no longer needed, and the master of the meeting out, left to Gen. Terry's discretion, and as a large number of troops are still needed in the State, it is thought his force will not immediately be materially reduced.

Governor Pierpont has abolished the old Virginia Court of Appeals. The Governor expects to have civil government in the State in good running order the first of August.

New York, July 7.—General Gordon Granger, commanding in Texas, in recently issued order, gives the people of that State a full amnesty, and says that negroes have ceased to exist there, and that this result involves an equality of personal rights and rights of property between negroes and their former masters.

At the same time he counsels the colored people to remain on the plantations and continue to work, and warn them against idleness.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Brig. Gen. Richard B. Lee, Frank Hughes, S. S. Lee, Maj. Gen. J. C. Brown and A. K. Allison, the last rebels of Florida, have applied for parole.

Com. Parker, last winter in command of the James River Naval Division, has been found guilty of neglect of duty in preventing the raid of the rebel gunboats at that time, but in consequence of his long and faithful services is recommended to clemency. The President has disapproved of the finding and ordered his release from arrest.

General Price, it is supposed, will go to Mexico and engage in the mining speculations.

New York, July 7.—The Merchants' Exchange, of this city, has the following:

The ship Wm. N. Smith, Capt. Smith from Antwerp June 4th, of and for New York with passengers, was burned on the banks of New Foundland on the 1st inst.

About 300 of her passengers were picked up and taken to Johns, N. F., by the boat of the Witch. The crew are missing and is suspected that she has been captured.

New York, July 7.—Col. Burnett, Government prosecutor in the assassination trial, accompanied by Col. Trent, Commissioner of Gen. Schofield's corps, and Col. Cox, of the 23d army corps, arrived here yesterday.

They leave for the West in a few days, after enjoying their first furlough for three years.

Col. Cox is a brother to General Cox, the minister for Governor of Ohio.

Pittsburg, July 7.—River 4 feet higher by the mark and falling. Weather clear and warm.

[Special to the Journal.]

WASHINGTON, July 7.—General Grant

returned to the city last evening from Albany.

President Johnson is better to day, but not yet well enough to receive visitors. Notwithstanding, his unfeeling condition the people persist in soliciting interviews.

Ex-Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, was released from the Old Capitol this morning by direction of the President, on his parole, subject to the orders of the proper authority there.

For some days past there have been mutinies of discontent among the soldiers stationed at Bayley's Cross Roads, because, as they thought, they had not been fairly treated.

Gen. Sumner left St. Louis for the upper Ohio on the 5th, and the Blue Wing No. 3, and Gem were advertised for this port on the 7th.

The Mississippi at St. Louis was falling on Thursday with over 12 feet water on the river, Cairo, and the upper Mississippi rising. The Missouri and Illinois were falling.

The Pittsburg Dispatch, of Saturday last, reported new boats finishing at that port, including the Dictator, Captain Donaldson, for the St. Louis and New Orleans trade, and adds that there were 29 tow-boats in port.

In testing the boiler of the tow-boat Commerce at St. Louis, it bursted. The No. 1 has yet to be tested. The no. 2 boats were built at Old City or Mr. Franklin, and came down the river, and will get their passengers from the Custom House.

It will be seen by our list that the arras yesterday were quite numerous, including a fleet of boats from Parkersburg, with men, horses and wagons belonging to Sherman's command. They were, we believe, ordered again to some point up river.

FOR EVANSVILLE, CINCINNATI, AND MEMPHIS. The swift-winged Liberty No. 2, the regular packet for Memphis this evening, has been delayed by repairs to her machinery, and will not be able to leave at her appointed time. She will start Monday evening at 6 o'clock, and will be in Cincinnati Tuesday morning.

This morning Major-Generals Hancock and Hartsuff visited the Old Penitentiary to formally read the sentences to the prisoners convicted by the Military Commission. The orders were read to the condemned in separate cells, and their wishes were consulted in regard to the preparation they might wish to make before meeting their fate.

Payne was visited first. He received immediate notice of his doom, which was read by General Hartsuff. He simply asked the Doctor, a Baptist minister at Baltimore, to say what he would have him do.

Atzerotti, who came next, was much affected, being deathly pale and shedding tears. He wished for a Lutheran clergyman, but named no particular one. Hartsuff selected one prepared for the death sentence. He wished an interview with his family and said they would provide him with a clergyman.

Mrs. Surratt at first hardly seemed to realize that she had only twenty-four hours to live; but as the terrible truth slowly dawned upon her, she uttered a shriek, fainted, and fell, and pled vehemently for a little time, for four days more. The officers, having no control of the matter, made no answer. She desired the attendance of Fathers Walton and Wright of Baltimore.

The relatives of the prisoners had the privilege of visiting for a few moments.

The scaffold will be erected to-night in the yard south of the penitentiary, which is about 20 feet in height.

Passenger boats, about 20 feet long, will be prepared this afternoon and evening at the arsenal.

The Palestine, having been released from Government service, arrived from New Orleans yesterday morning.

W. Williams arrived at Cairo from New Orleans on the 6th, and will return to New Orleans from that port.

Gen. Anderson, of the 12th, will be sent to New Orleans to take command of the 12th.

The Huntley was due from Nashville yesterday and will have disparity for a return trip.

The Warren Belle, Capt. Vanmeter's new craft, for the Louisville and Green river trade, will soon be ready to make her first.

Mr. Surratt at first hardly seemed to realize that she had only twenty-four hours to live; but as the terrible truth slowly dawned upon her, she uttered a shriek, fainted, and fell, and pled vehemently for a little time, for four days more. The officers, having no control of the matter, made no answer. She desired the attendance of Fathers Walton and Wright of Baltimore.

The Money market is quiet and unchanged, though Eastern exchange now ranges from $100-100 buying, and selling at $10 premium. The brokers are quoting at the following rates:

BIRMINGHAM, JULY 7.—
GOLD, 140;
SILVER, 125;
INDIA, 100;
EASTERN, 100;
PLATINUM, 50;

140;
LONDON, 100;
140;
140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;

140;
140;